

Do not give media owners any more latitude than they already have. Clear Channel already has a stranglehold on the national radio market and it has left both the music and radio industries in total stagnation for at least all of my lifetime. There is too much media consolidation as it is. Do not allow any more, or your children will only hear the voice of Big Brother (the 5 companies that own all the media.)